

TJDF 2024 WORKSHOP ARTIST

Zackery Betty – July 20, 10:00-11:30am at Lebanon Ballet School

Ballet with NSquared Dance

Movement that moves through the body, with a contemporary lens on the traditional technique of ballet. An emphasis on breath while executing exercises at the barre and center. A class to lengthen and strengthen full of joy! (Ages 12+)

Zackery Betty (He/Him) Artistic Director of NSquared Dance, MFA in Choreography from Wilson College and BFA in Dance from Marymount Manhattan College. He has collaborated with The Palace Theatre, Currier Museum of Art, and New Hampshire Dance Collaborative, among others. His choreography has been featured at Lindenwood University, University of New Hampshire, Endicott College, Ballet Hartford, The Palace Theatre, & Boston Arts Academy. Zackery has also been an adjunct Professor of Dance at Plymouth State University. He has also been a company member with Keigwin & Company, Tami Stronach Dance, Project 44, City Ballet of Boston, and Ballet Misha. In addition to performing and teaching nationally and abroad, Zackery has been named a Fellow within the New Hampshire Dance Collaboratives' Accelerator program.

Photos by Megan Edmonds Photography and Ryan Smith Visuals